FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 2019

8:00 – 9:30 AM What's Next? Transitioning from a Music Student – Dr. Michael Raiber

As high school music students consider participating in music at the collegiate level, there are several elements that need to be considered. Whether auditioning and entering as a music major or participating in music while majoring in another subject, college music is not just a continuation of high school music classes. The culture and expectations can be considerably different from students' previous experiences in music. Dr. Raiber will provide parents with an overview of the processes for both music and non-music major participation in collegiate music. Resources will be shared and there will be ample time for questions specific to those attending.

9:30 – 11:45 AM College Fair

1:00 – 2:00 PM Power of Music – NafME President, Kathy Sanz and ANHE Program Chair, Scott Sheehan

Music has the power to change lives and offers benefits that last far beyond the concert hall, the football field, or the practice room. Amidst today's political landscape and educational reforms, the importance of keeping music in schools is more important than ever. Learn what NafME is doing to promote and support music education for all children across the country and how YOU can become a champion for music in your community.
