

Chapter 1 – Model Cornerstone Assessments

By Kelly Parkes

ABSTRACT

The purpose of this chapter is to share the background of the Model Cornerstone Assessment research project. The timeline of the project is shared in detail, along with identifying the major contributors. The connections between the Standards writing teams and the MCA developers is also explained. The design process is outlined and the underlying framework of the MCAs is shared.