

Support music education
in your community, and nation

Get Knowledgeable! – The Every Student Succeeds Act

The Every Student Succeeds Act creates a new day for music education that demands you be involved:

- Specific and stand-alone mention of music as an important component of a well-rounded education
- New and expanded funding opportunities to support access to music education

Visit bit.ly/EverythingESSA for more information.

Take Action! – Advocate for your School’s Music Program

Become an advocate at the state and local level through the Civic Action Field Guide bit.ly/NAfMECivicActionFieldGuide

Work with teachers and administrators to get involved in Title IV Part A planning for your school district. These funds can support a well-rounded education, including music.

Communicate with your local media outlets. Visit bit.ly/NAfMEBackpack for a “Public Relations 101” guide for ideas.

- Know an administrator or lawmaker? Invite school board members, county/district supervisors, state and national lawmakers to a school music performance.
- Increase involvement in school music programs by sponsoring school music clubs or talent shows to generate interest and enthusiasm among students not currently enrolled in music classes

Visit bit.ly/TakeActionforMusicEducation for other advocacy resources.

Support music education
in your community, and nation

Get Knowledgeable! – The Every Student Succeeds Act

The Every Student Succeeds Act creates a new day for music education that demands you be involved:

- Specific and stand-alone mention of music as an important component of a well-rounded education
- New and expanded funding opportunities to support access to music education

Visit bit.ly/EverythingESSA for more information.

Take Action! – Advocate for your School’s Music Program

Become an advocate at the state and local level through the Civic Action Field Guide bit.ly/NAfMECivicActionFieldGuide

Work with teachers and administrators to get involved in Title IV Part A planning for your school district. These funds can support a well-rounded education, including music.

Communicate with your local media outlets. Visit bit.ly/NAfMEBackpack for a “Public Relations 101” guide for ideas.

- Know an administrator or lawmaker? Invite school board members, county/district supervisors, state and national lawmakers to a school music performance.
- Increase involvement in school music programs by sponsoring school music clubs or talent shows to generate interest and enthusiasm among students not currently enrolled in music classes

Visit bit.ly/TakeActionforMusicEducation for other advocacy resources.

