NAfME ALL-NATIONAL HONOR ENSEMBLES

Jazz Ensemble, Mixed Choir, Guitar Ensemble, Modern Band, Symphony Orchestra, Concert Band

Selected to perform in the 2020 All-National Honor Ensembles are 542 of the most musically talented high school students in the United States. With assistance from their music teachers and directors, these exceptional students have prepared challenging music that they will perform under the leadership of prominent conductors in this annual event.

Grateful acknowledgment is given to the parents, families, and friends of the selected students for their cooperation and support as they share in this joyful experience. Special acknowledgment is also given to the following individuals for their leadership, expertise, and assistance in organizing and presenting these concerts.

To our 2020 Sponsors and Partners:

NAfME acknowledges Jazz at Lincoln Center for their continued support of the All-National Jazz Ensemble. NAfME acknowledges Little Kids Rock for their support of the All-National Modern Band. NAfME would like to thank Conn-Selmer for their support hosting the virtual platform for all events and rehearsals. NAfME would like to thank the Mark Wood Music Foundation for providing content and resources for this year's string students, and Harman for providing recording equipment for this year's Modern Band. NAfME is also appreciative of our concert production company, GPG Music (Our Virtual Ensemble) for their dedication to music education during the COVID-19 pandemic and for providing educators with a platform for sharing their concerts virtually.

She is the facilitator of the Teacher Retention ASAP of the Society for Music Teacher Education.

Spradley is a published author with research interests in music teacher effectiveness, critical discourse, culturally responsive teaching, social justice in music education, and critical theory. She continues to focus her work and efforts on issues related to equity in music education programs and improving music teacher effectiveness.

SCOTT R. SHEEHAN, PRESIDENT-ELECT, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR MUSIC EDUCATION

SCOTT R. SHEEHAN

*NAfME President-Elect
Program Chair, NAfME All-National Honor Ensembles*

A nationally recognized advocate and leader for the advancement of music education, Scott R. Sheehan is the Director of Bands and Music Department Chairperson at the Hollidaysburg Area Senior High School in Hollidaysburg, Pennsylvania, where he directs the Symphonic Wind Ensemble, Concert Band, Jazz Band, and Marching Band and teaches AP Music Theory, Fundamentals of Guitar, and the elective course Rock, Rap, and Revolution! During his tenure at Hollidaysburg, the school district has been named one of the Best Communities for Music Education in the United States by the NAMM Foundation for the past nine years.

In addition to his duties at Hollidaysburg, Sheehan serves as the President-Elect (2020–2022) of the National Association for Music Education and is the Program Chair for the NAfME All-National Honors Ensembles. He was the NAfME Eastern Division President for from 2015–2017, during which he served on the Executive and Finance Committees. As an active member of the Pennsylvania Music Educators Association, Sheehan served as State President, as well as the District 6 Vice President and the District 4 President and Curriculum and Instruction State Representative. He coordinates the PMEA Leadership Academy, serves on the PMEA Mentoring Program Steering Committee, and is coordinator of the PMEA Model Curriculum & Assessment Steering Committee.

Sheehan is an Educational Clinician for Conn-Selmer and a consultant for strategic planning and association development. He served as the NAfME Mentor for Band, and he was recognized at the state level as a Pennsylvania Keystone Technology Integrator by the Department of Education. He also served on the Educator Effectiveness Stakeholders Steering Committee for the Department of Education and was a lead teacher for the implementation of the Student Learning Objectives initiative for PDE.

He is a member of Phi Beta Mu, the International Bandmasters Fraternity, was named Teacher of the Year in 2013 by the Hollidaysburg Area School District, and received the Outstanding Music Educator Award from Penn State University's College of Arts and Architecture in 2016. Sheehan was a finalist for the 2019 GRAMMY Music Educator Award and is an active guest conductor and clinician throughout the United States. He plays trumpet with the Hollidaysburg Community Band, of which he is also the group's Associate Conductor. Additionally, he performs with the Altoona Brass Collective and the Blair County Brassworks for various community events and local church services. Scott holds a Bachelor of Science in Music Education and a Bachelor of Music in Music Marketing from Clarion University, as well as a Master of Music Education from the Pennsylvania State University. Scott Sheehan and his wife Amy are the proud parents of a daughter named Ellie.

NAfME ALL-NATIONAL HONOR MODERN BAND CONDUCTORS

TONY SAUZA

Conductor, Modern Band

Tony Sauza taught secondary music in Los Angeles for eight years before joining the music education nonprofit Little Kids Rock. He is now the Senior Developer of Curricular Programs, where he supports teachers in developing their Modern Band programs across Southern California. Sauza received a bachelor's degree in Ethnomusicology from UCLA while minoring in Chicana/o Studies. He then earned his California Single Subject Teaching Credential in Music in 2010 and his master's degree in Afro-Latin Music from California State University Los Angeles in 2012.

Sauza is a multi-instrumentalist and has been playing guitar for more than twenty years. He currently performs locally and nationally with his cumbia project, Viento Callejero, along with guest appearances and collaborations with international artists. He is an avid supporter of music from around the world, a firm believer in recreational music-making and music therapy, and has a deep passion for Afro-Caribbean music.

Mary Claxton has spent her professional life at the joyful intersection of music performance, teaching, and advocacy. Her early passion for music led her to be involved with every musical ensemble possible—band, choir, jazz band, pit orchestra, and drumline, as well as informal experiences with various genres of pop bands. In the classroom, Claxton went on to teach nearly every one of those same ensembles and later was pulled particularly toward the Modern Band movement that emphasized the songwriting and student-centered aspects that have made music so meaningful to her throughout the years.

She joined the Little Kids Rock team full-time as the Colorado Director of Programs in 2017. She now works as Senior Developer of Curricular Programs, creating teacher certification pathways in addition to student resources.

Claxton has been a presenter and clinician for organizations such as the Association of Popular Music Education, the Modern Band Summit, the University of Northern Colorado Jazz Festival, and the University of Wisconsin–Eau Claire, the institution where she received her Bachelor of Music Education degree.

She continues to perform often on drums, vocals and ukulele, working hard to further her skills and continue the conversation with her community and students about the role music plays in reflecting and changing our world.

NAfME ALL-NATIONAL HONOR GUITAR ENSEMBLE CONDUCTOR

CHUCK HULIHAN
Conductor, Guitar Ensemble

Chuck Hulihan has enjoyed a career over the past three decades as a guitarist, educator, conductor, narrator, arts administrator, and as a classical music radio host. Hulihan has directed the guitar program at Glendale Community College since 1999, where he is the Assistant Department Chair for Performing Arts. In 2015 he was chosen by his peers to receive the GCC Gaucho Globe Award for Supporting Student Success. His work at GCC is highlighted by collaborations with composers who have written new works for the GCC Guitar Ensembles, including Mark Houghton, Rex Willis, Jan Bartlema, Adrian Andrei, Frank Wallace, Andrew York, Vito Nicola Paradiso, Francisco Munoz, Aramis Silvereke, and Phil Moloso. Since 2000, his students have consistently won the Artists of Promise competition in both solo guitar and instrumental ensemble categories, and in 2014 the GCC Guitar Octet won the Guitar Foundation of America's Ensemble Showcase Competition and went on to perform two world premieres at the 2014 convention.

Hulihan's work as a conductor has included more than 120 concerts directing the GCC Guitar Ensembles and includes leading large orchestras comprising students from high school, college, and guitar society ensembles. He has led the Arizona Guitar Orchestra (AZGO), a collaboration of musicians from across Arizona, in three statewide tours that featured Shingo Fujii's Concierto de Los Angeles with soloist William Kanengiser, Brad Richter's Once We Moved Like the Wind, and Andrew York's By Chants with the Los Angeles Guitar Quartet. He has been a featured guest conductor with the Clark County School District Honor Ensemble, the Vanguard University Guitar Festival Orchestra, the State College of Florida Guitar Ensemble, the Sonoran Desert Guitars Festival Ensemble, the Austin Classical Guitar's Guitar Curriculum National Teacher Training Summit and Guitar Ensembles Festival, as well as Florida, Virginia, and New Mexico All-State Guitar Ensembles. In 2019, Hulihan conducted the world premiere of David Leisner's Medanales Morning in Virginia with the All-Virginia Guitar Ensemble, Mark Houghton's Guitarchestra no. 10 with the GFA Youth Guitar Orchestra in Florida, and Michael Keplinger's Gale in Texas with the Austin Classical Guitar Ensemble Festival Orchestra. During the 2019 GFA Convention in Miami Florida, Hulihan led an exclusive performance of music from the Netflix mini-series Godless by Emmy-award-winning composer Carlos Rafael Rivera, and collaborated with the composer on the arrangement for cello, guitar and guitar orchestra for this special performance.

He is the Director of the Guitar Foundation of America's Youth Guitar Orchestra, Community Guitar Orchestra, and Guitar Summit. Hulihan contributes to the field of music education as a conference clinician and presenter and serves as Western Division Representative for the National Association for Music Education's Innovations Council, as ex-officio Guitar Chair for the Arizona Music Educators Association, and as an active board member of the Grand Canyon and Phoenix Guitar Societies.

NAfME ALL-NATIONAL HONOR MIXED CHOIR CONDUCTOR AND ACCOMPANIST

FRANCES FONZA
Conductor, Mixed Choir

Frances Fonza is the Director of Worship and Arts at Mt. Ennon Baptist Church in Clinton, Maryland, and teaches at Duke Ellington School of the Arts in Washington, D.C. She earned a Bachelor of Music Education degree at the University of Missouri Columbia, and a Master of Music Education and a Doctorate in Music Education/Choral Conducting at Florida State University.

Fonza taught choral music at the middle school and high school levels in Kentucky for several years. Additionally, Fonza served as Assistant Professor of Music Education and Director of Choral Activities at Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio. Her responsibilities included teaching music education courses, aural skills, choral conducting, supervising music education interns, and directing the Wittenberg choirs. Choirs under her direction have participated in state, regional, and national music festivals. Fonza is an active singer, clinician, and adjudicator. A frequent guest conductor, she has conducted several honor, public school, and church choirs. Her research interests are community partnerships, healthy singing in gospel music, and tone-building strategies used in the choral classroom.

Fonza holds professional memberships in the National Association for Music Educators and the American Choral Directors Association.

Ms. Powell received her B.A. in Music Education from Calvin College in Grand Rapids, Michigan and then spent a decade directing Junior and Senior High School bands in Michigan and Ohio. Since moving to Jackson, Tennessee in 2005, Lisa has invested in a variety of both musical and ministry opportunities. She served as the Staff Accompanist for Bethel University's Music Department, as well as the Musical Director for Bethel's Renaissance Theater Program from 2011 to 2019. She did collaborative piano work for the Music Department at the University of Tennessee in Martin in 2018 and 2019 as well. From 2005 to 2013, Lisa was involved in both the Children's Ministry and the Youth Ministry at Northside Church, in Jackson, Tennessee.

Currently, Ms. Powell is the Director of Music and Student Ministries at Grace United Methodist Church in Jackson, Tennessee, where she has served since 2010. She is also the Band Director and History Teacher at Sacred Heart of Jesus High School in Jackson. Lisa accompanies numerous Junior High and High School choirs and musical theater productions in Jackson and has also served as an All Northwest Choir Accompanist since 2008. She has had the opportunity to be a TMEA All State Choir accompanist in 2011, 2018, 2019, and 2020, and is looking forward to the future, when these groups can resume with more traditional performances.

This is the first time Lisa has been a part of NAfME. She is looking forward to 2022, when she will serve as the accompanist for the National Honor Choir in San Diego and work with the esteemed conductor Frances Fonza Smith.

Lisa resides in Jackson, Tennessee and is proud of her three kids Julia (23), Jesse (18), and Joanna (16).

NAfME ALL-NATIONAL HONOR JAZZ ENSEMBLE

CONDUCTOR AND GUEST SOLOIST

TODD STOLL
Conductor, Jazz Ensemble

In over three decades as a music educator, Todd Stoll has taught young musicians at every level, from elementary school through college. His impact on public music education can be seen in his legacy at central Ohio's Westerville City Schools where he served for 18 years as music teacher and for 10 years as music curriculum coordinator. He has also served as Ohio's president of the International Association of Jazz Educators and the inaugural Chair of Jazz Events for the Ohio Music Education Association. His curriculum work has been implemented at public schools across Ohio and beyond, bringing jazz education to students who otherwise might not have received it.

An experienced performer, Duke Ellington expert, and jazz advocate, Stoll founded the Columbus Jazz Youth Orchestra (CJYO) in 1991 to give young people the chance to cultivate a love of jazz through performance. He served as the director until 2011. Under his direction, the CJYO released six CDs, participated in the prestigious Essentially Ellington competition at Jazz at Lincoln Center, and toured Europe and South America. His students have achieved successes that have taken them to the Juilliard School, Carnegie Hall, and the New York Philharmonic.

In 2011, Stoll became the Vice President of Education at Jazz at Lincoln Center (JALC) in New York City, which continues to afford him the opportunity to bring jazz education programs to thousands of people of all ages and socioeconomic levels. Since he joined the organization, JALC has produced more than 10,000 education events in the US and around the world. The innovative Essentially Ellington high school jazz band program has expanded during his tenure, providing nearly 200,000 free scores to 4,000 high schools in all 50 states and 46 countries, reaching more than 500,000 students.

Stoll holds a Master of Music degree from the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music and a Bachelor of Music degree from Miami University. He currently serves on the boards of the Jazz Education Network where he is President; the New York City chapter of Most Valuable Kids; and the National Association for Music Education Policy Roundtable.

Terell Stafford, acclaimed trumpet player based in New York, has been hailed as "one of the great players of our time, a fabulous trumpet player" by piano legend McCoy Tyner. Stafford is recognized as an incredibly gifted and versatile player: He combines a deep love of melody with his own brand of spirited and adventurous lyricism. Stafford's exceptionally expressive and well-defined musical talent allows him to dance in and around the rich trumpet tradition of his predecessors while making his own inroads.

Since the mid-1990s, Stafford has performed with groups such as Benny Golson's Sextet, McCoy Tyner's Sextet, the Kenny Barron Quintet, Frank Wess Quintet, Jimmy Heath Quintet and Big Band, Jon Faddis Jazz Orchestra, Carnegie Hall Jazz Band, and Dizzy Gillespie All-Star Alumni Band. Stafford, with the Hamilton-Clayton Jazz Orchestra, performed on Diana Krall's GRAMMY nominated From This Moment On (2006). John Clayton invited Stafford to perform with the Clayton Brothers Quintet and Clayton-Hamilton Jazz Orchestra. Stafford is a member of the Vanguard Jazz Orchestra and they were awarded a GRAMMY in 2009 for Best Large Ensemble, Live at the Village Vanguard. Stafford can be heard on more than 130 albums, including his own Brother Lee Love, Celebrating Lee Morgan, which received a 47th Annual NAACP Image Award nomination. His most recent album, Family Feeling, is a BCM&D release.

Stafford is the Director of Jazz Studies and Chair of Instrumental Studies at Temple University in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, founder and band leader of the Terell Stafford Quintet, and Managing and Artistic Director of the Jazz Orchestra of Philadelphia. Stafford is renowned in the jazz world as an educator, performer, and leader and has received countless award nominations and accolades.

Terell Stafford was born in Miami, Florida, and raised in Chicago, Illinois, and Silver Spring, Maryland. He received a Bachelor of Science in Music Education from the University of Maryland in 1988 and a Master of Music from Rutgers University in 1993.

NAfME ALL-NATIONAL HONOR SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA CONDUCTOR

NOBUYOSHI YASUDA
Conductor, Symphony Orchestra

Nobuyoshi Yasuda was appointed as Orchestra Director at the University of Wisconsin–Eau Claire in 1991, Music Director of the Chippewa Valley Symphony in 1993. He guest conducted orchestras such as the Muncie Symphony Orchestra, the Fort Wayne Philharmonic, La Crosse Symphony and the St. Paul Chamber Orchestra. With the St. Paul Chamber Orchestra, he has participated in the educational outreach project, “Arts across Minnesota” granted by the Minnesota State Arts Board, to have residency in a high school; he led a “side-by-side rehearsal” and gave a concert. Yasuda made his international conducting debut in Germany with Das Philharmonie Orchester des NDR–Hannover in May 2003. And in March 2004, he made his Japanese debut with the Osaka Philharmonic.

He has served as Acting Assistant Conductor for the Minnesota Orchestra and was Associate Conductor of the Grand Teton Music Festival. His performance of Milhaud’s Création du monde at the festival was broadcast on National Public Radio’s Performance Today in July 2001.

Yasuda’s contagious enthusiasm and dedication to education has made him an icon of music in Eau Claire and surrounding communities. His expertise and joyful approach to music that enable him to work successfully with the musicians of the Chippewa Valley Symphony, Grand Teton Music Festival, and St. Paul Chamber Orchestra has allowed him to reach out to aspiring young musicians as well. He leads master classes and guest-conducts middle and high school orchestras and bands, as well as serves as a speaker at inspirational “career days” for young adults throughout the upper Midwest.

His reputation as an inspiring teacher and a conductor has led him to be invited as a conductor of the Wisconsin High School State Honors Orchestra, the Illinois All State High School Orchestra, the Alaska All State High School Orchestra, North Dakota All State High School Orchestra, and the Minnesota Middle Level State Honors Orchestra.

A native of Takarazuka, Japan, Yasuda’s music studies began on the violin at the age of three. He holds a Bachelor of Music degree from Soai University in Japan and a Master of Music from Indiana University, Bloomington. Yasuda has been an active violin soloist and chamber musician throughout the United States and Japan. His interest in conducting was sparked by his desire to find new ways to share his passion for music with people.

NAfME ALL-NATIONAL HONOR CONCERT BAND CONDUCTOR

RODNEY DORSEY

Conductor, Concert Band

Rodney Dorsey is Professor of Music at the Indiana University Jacobs School of Music; a position he has held since the fall of 2018. Dorsey is the conductor of the internationally recognized Indiana Wind Ensemble and guides all aspects of the graduate wind conducting program. Past positions have included Director of Bands at the University of Oregon, Associate Director of Bands at the University of Michigan, Associate Professor of Music at DePaul University, and Director of Athletic Bands at Northwestern University's Bienen School of Music. Dorsey also taught public school for eight years in Florida and Georgia.

Ensembles under Dorsey's direction have performed at state and national events including the College Band Directors National Conference North/Northwest Regional Conference and the Music for All National Festival. He is an active guest conductor having led intercollegiate, all-state, and regional honors bands around the country. International engagements include Hungary, Canada and Bulgaria.

An active advocate for the composition of new wind repertoire, Dorsey has been involved in a number of commissioning projects that include the following composers; Andrea Reinkemeyer, Steven Mackey, D. J. Sparr, Anthony Barfield, Stacy Garrop, Andrew Rindfleisch, and John Mackey.

Dorsey has also presented clinic sessions at national and state conferences that include the College Band Directors National Association, National Association for Music Education, College Music Society, and the Midwest Clinic. He has also presented at numerous state music conferences around the United States.

Dorsey's professional memberships include the College Band Directors National Association, National Association for Music Education, Indiana Bandmasters Association, Kappa Kappa Psi, Tau Beta Sigma (honorary), Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, and Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Incorporated.

His commitment to the music community has been demonstrated by his participation on boards of directors for the Midwest Clinic and Music for All. He is also an elected member of the prestigious American Bandmasters Association. His lifelong commitment to teaching saw him recognized as a Yamaha Master Educator.

A native of Gainesville, FL. Rodney Dorsey is a graduate of Florida State University and Northwestern University in Evanston. He studied conducting with James Croft, John Paynter, and Mallory Thompson and clarinet with Fred Ormand and Frank Kowalsky.

THANK YOU TO THE 2020 COLLEGE FAIR PARTICIPANTS

IN YOUR SCHOOL'S STORY TRI-M COULD BE THE MOST IMPORTANT CHAPTER

Tri-M® is the only national honor society for student musicians in the country. It highlights your school's music program and gives students the opportunity to perform, lead, and serve.

Besides looking good on a college application, a Tri-M® Music Honor Society chapter is easy to start, easy to run, and benefits your students, the school, and the community.

Over 2,300 Tri-M chapters already enrich the lives of over 85,000+ students throughout the country and around the globe.
