

Rhonda Rhodes
Equity Statement

All Music Matters. Music Educators should work to expose students to exemplary music of all genres. Musical Lives Matter. Music enriches lives. The study and performing music fosters personal responsibility. Music learning opportunities must be available to all students. Music Communities Matter. Music is a means to bring people together. Music is a means to understand another's life experience. A well-structured musical community is a safe place for all. Music is the Matter of Life.