Call for Music Program Leaders Forum Sessions

at the 2022 NAFME National Conference NAfME is ME!

The NAfME Council of Music Program Leaders (NCMPL) are interested in proposals for sessions to be presented at the 2022 NAFME Music Program Leaders Forum taking place November 3-4, 2022 at the Gaylord National Resort & Convention Center in National Harbor, Maryland. The theme of the 2022 NAFME Conference is NAfME is ME! NAFME is Music Education, a vibrant diverse community of music educators, including program leaders, whose unique, valuable contributions, perspectives, and participation are critical to the success of music education at the local, state, and national level.

The NAFME Council for Music Program Leaders, in conjunction with the 2022 NAFME National Conference Organizing Committee, encourages proposals that:

- Are administrator/leadership-oriented.
- Support and advance diversity, equity, inclusion and access (DEIA) at all levels in the field of music education.
- Foster interaction and interdisciplinary connections across NAFME's vibrant network of communities, affiliates, councils, and societies.

If you would be interested in proposing a session to present at the Music Program Leaders Forum on November 3-4, 2022, please fill out the form via the session proposal link below. Sessions will be approximately 60 minutes in length and should align with NAfME's Values, Vision, and Mission.

The session proposal deadline is Tuesday, February 15, 2022. All applicants will be notified of the status of their session proposal by April 30, 2022. *Please note the NCMPL Forum is unable to provide financial assistance for clinicians.

Whether you are interested in presenting or attending, we look forward to seeing you in National Harbor in November 2022.
