All registered participants, attendees, vendors and guests of the NAfME National Conference are required to be fully vaccinated for COVID-19. Verification of proof of vaccination will be handled through a third-party vendor utilizing a secure application for uploading and confirmation of vaccination. NAfME will not retain or store any vaccination related information.

ABOUT THE EVENT

The National Association for Music Education (NAfME) is excited to announce this year's National Conference taking place November 2-6, 2022, at the Gaylord National Resort & Convention Center in National Harbor, Maryland, near Washington, DC. Registration will open in April.

The NAfME National Conference will combine three signature NAfME events:

- Biennial Music Research and Teacher Education Conference
- National PreK-12 Conference
- All-National Honor Ensembles

The theme of the 2022 NAfME Conference is NAfME is ME! The theme was created to bring attention to and celebrate the valuable contributions and unique perspectives that our members bring to the field of music education.

SCHEDULE OVERVIEW

- November 2-3: Music Program Leaders Forum
- November 3: Emerging Leaders Forum
- November 3: Additional pre-conference, TBA
- November 3-5: 2022 NAfME National Conference
 - Keynote/plenary sessions, featured sessions, and hundreds of peer-reviewed presentation and poster sessions.
 - Young Composers Concert which will feature the winners of the 2022 NAfME Composition Competitions.
- November 3-6: All-National Honor Ensembles, final concerts November 5-6

WHY SPONSOR?

NAfME is the premier music education association, providing professional development, resources, networking, and collaboration for our members for more than 100 years. Our members are leaders who are actively involved in their music education communities and advocates in preserving, supporting, and growing the field of music education.

The 2022 National Conference, held at the Gaylord Resort and Convention Center in National Harbor, Maryland, will provide attendees the opportunity to share challenges and success stories, gain new ideas from music education community leaders from around the country, and help energize and prepare them to meet their goals. NAfME is ME! will include exciting and valuable programs and presentations ensuring that attendees leave the conference with strategies, inspiration, and connection.

Becoming a 2022 NAfME is ME! conference sponsor will provide you with a valuable introduction to our active and engaged members. We've added new opportunities to brand your company or organization as well as to interact with music educators and administrators. For more information, please review the following opportunities included in the prospectus.

ALL-NATIONAL HONOR ENSEMBLES (ANHE) COLLEGE FAIR

Let NAFME help you identify and recruit individuals to your college music program! The 2022 NAFME National Conference will once again host the NAFME All-National Honor Ensembles (ANHE) event. Taking place November 3-6 in National Harbor, Maryland, the highly regarded ANHE program is comprised of the nation's most accomplished high school musicians who have vied for the opportunity to rehearse and perform in a one-of-a-kind national honor program.

The students must first compete at their local, district, and state level to become eligible for this honor. Colleges, universities, and conservatories will have the opportunity to interact with more than 600 accomplished high school student musicians, their parents, and hundreds of PreK-12 music directors in this invitation-only event.

Many of these students are ready to make important decisions about which college to attend. Students will rotate and attend in groups on Friday, November 4. Parents and NAFME National Conference attendees will also circulate during the event, including exclusive Exhibit Hall hours.
