NAfME ALL-NATIONAL HONOR ENSEMBLES

Modern Band, Guitar Ensemble, Mixed Choir,
Jazz Ensemble, Symphony Orchestra, Concert Band

Selected to perform in the 2022 All-National Honor Ensembles are 543 of the most musically accomplished high school students in the United States. With assistance from their music teachers and directors, these exceptional students have prepared challenging music that they will perform under the leadership of prominent conductors in this annual event.

Grateful acknowledgment is given to the parents/guardians, families, and friends of the selected students for their cooperation and support as they share in this joyful experience. Special acknowledgment is also given to the music teachers and directors of the students, as well as their state Music Education Associations (MEAs), for their leadership, expertise, and dedication to the education of these talented high school students. NAfME also acknowledges the Ensemble Chaperones, for giving of their time and expertise to guide and assist participating students throughout the NAfME All-National Honor Ensembles.

2022 Sponsors and Partners:

NAfME thanks the presenting sponsor of the 2022 All-National Honor Ensembles, CMA Foundation, for their support of the program and their focus on improving and sustaining music education programs everywhere.

NAfME acknowledges Jazz at Lincoln Center for their continued support of the All-National Jazz Ensemble and dedication to advancing the appreciation, understanding, and performance of Jazz. NAfME acknowledges Little Kids Rock for their support of the All-National Modern Band and for bringing innovative and inclusive music education to students.

NAfME also acknowledges Schmidt Vocal Arts, the U.S. Army Bands, and the U.S. Marine Corps Music Program for providing instructional audition opportunities to the All-National Honor Ensembles students.

Concert recordings and merchandise will be available for purchase or to order in the lobby following the NAfME All-National Honor Ensembles concerts.

SCOTT R. SHEEHAN, PRESIDENT, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR MUSIC EDUCATION

SCOTT R. SHEEHAN
NAfME President, 2022–2024

A nationally recognized advocate and leader for the advancement of music education, Scott Sheehan is the Director of Bands and Music Department Chairperson at the Hollidaysburg Area Senior High School in Hollidaysburg, Pennsylvania, where he directs the Symphonic Wind Ensemble, Concert Band, Jazz Band, Marching Band and teaches AP Music Theory, Fundamentals of Guitar, and Rock, Rap, and Revolution!. Hollidaysburg has been named one of the Best Communities for Music Education in the United States by the NAMM Foundation for the past eight years under Scott's leadership. In addition to his duties at Hollidaysburg, Mr. Sheehan was a finalist for the 2019 GRAMMY Music Educator Award and is an Educational Clinician for Conn-Selmer. He is also a consultant for strategic planning and association development.

As the President of the NAfME Eastern Division from 2015–2017, Mr. Sheehan served on the National Executive Band and Executive Committee. He is currently the Program Chair for the NAfME All-National Honors Ensembles. As an active member of the Pennsylvania Music Educators Association

(PMEA), Scott has served as State President, as well as a District President and Curriculum and Instruction State Representative. He coordinates the PMEALeadership Academy, serves on the PMEAMentoring Program Steering Committee, is chair of the PMEAModel Curriculum Framework project.

Mr. Sheehan is a member of Phi Beta Mu, the International Bandmasters Fraternity, and served as a liaison to the NAfME National Band Council. He was recognized at the state level as a Pennsylvania Keystone Technology Integrator by the Department of Education, was named Teacher of the Year in 2013 by the Hollidaysburg Area School District, and received the Outstanding Music Educator Award from Penn State University's College of Arts and Architecture in 2016. He is an active guest conductor and clinician throughout the country and performs trumpet with the Hollidaysburg Community Band and with the Altoona Brass Collective. Scott holds a B.S. Degree in Music Education and a B.M. Degree in Music Marketing from Clarion University, and holds a Master's Degree in Music Education from the Pennsylvania State University. Scott and his wife Amy are the proud parents of their daughter Ellie.

SUE B. BARRE, PROGRAM CHAIR, NAfME ALL-NATIONAL HONOR ENSEMBLES

SUE B. BARRE

Program Chair, NAfME All-National Honor Ensembles

Sue B. Barre is the Immediate Past President of the Maine Music Educators Association (MMEA). Her term in office was marked by a National Association for Music Education (NAfME) state membership award. Mrs. Barre spearheaded structural changes for the Maine Music Educators Association to include moving MMEA from a 501C6 to a 501C3 organization, hiring an accountant, and adding a position for a part-time paid executive director. The institution of these changes ensures that MMEA promotes transparency and maintains integrity at the highest level for the membership.

Now in her twenty-fifth year of teaching, Mrs. Barre has experience teaching instrumental and choral music and has owned a preschool music program, taught French Horn at Bowdoin College and is currently in her eleventh year as band director for grades 5–12 in Waterville, Maine. Mrs. Barre is Chair of the Visual and Performing Arts Department in Waterville and holds a Bachelor of Science in Music Education and Horn Performance from the University of Massachusetts Amherst and a Master of Science in Instructional Leadership from the University of Southern Maine.

Highly respected as a skilled conductor and clinician, Mrs. Barre has presented band and modern band workshops for regional, state, and NAfME Eastern Division Conferences. She is an active member of the Kennebec Valley Music Educators Association, American Choral Directors Association (ACDA), and the Maine Music Educators Association. During her tenure as Chair of the Music Department, the Waterville High School Music Program was recognized by the State Legislature last May for outstanding performances at the WorldStrides Music Festival. All five high school ensembles, including band, chorus, strings, jazz band, and select choir were rated outstanding leading to Festival Sweep award.

Mrs. Barre's professional awards include the 2022 National Federation for High Schools (NFHS) Music Educator of the Year for Maine and the Eastern US (Section 1); 2017 School Band and Orchestra Magazine "50 directors who make a difference"; 2015 Grammy Community Award; 2016 Waterville Board of Education Community Award; 2014 and 2012 Waterville Board of Education Faculty Award; Teaching Music magazine 2000 "Outstanding Educator"; and 1996 Maine Music Educator of the Year.

BRYAN POWELL
Conductor, Modern Band

Dr. Bryan Powell is an Assistant Professor of Music Education and Music Technology at Montclair State University where teaches classes in music education, music technology, popular music, and directs the Montclair State University popular music ensemble. Bryan is also the Director of Higher Education for the non-profit organization Little Kids Rock. Prior to joining Montclair State, Bryan worked as the Director of Programs for Amp Up NYC, a partnership between Berklee College of Music and Little Kids Rock. Bryan is the Executive Director of the Association for Popular Music Education, an organization dedicated to promoting and advancing popular music at all levels of education.

Dr. Powell is the immediate Past-Chair for the National Association for Music Education's Special Research Interest Group for Popular Music Education, and is a current member of the International Society for Music Education's Committee for the Popular Music Education Special Interest Group. Bryan is an in-demand clinician, having delivered modern band and popular music workshops at over 50 colleges and universities across the globe, and has presented at over 100 music education conferences, including providing keynote addresses at the 2015 Research in Popular Music Education Symposium in Huddersfield, England, the 2018 Mountain Lake Symposium, and the 2019 Iowa Music Educators Association conference. Bryan is also in demand as a modern band ensemble director, serving as the Director for the 2022 New York City All-City Honors Modern Band Ensemble as well as the 2022 PMEA District 7 All-District Honors Modern Band Ensemble. In 2023, Bryan will direct the NAfME All-Eastern Division Honors Modern Band Ensemble.

Bryan is a widely published researcher and author. He is the founding co-editor of the Journal of Popular Music Education, a peer-reviewed, academic journal. Bryan has co-edited several books including the Bloomsbury Handbook of Popular Music Education (Bloomsbury), Places and Purposes of Popular Music Education: Perspectives from the Field (Intellect), and Teaching Instrumental Music: Perspectives and Pedagogies for the 21st Century (Oxford University Press). Bryan also co-authored Popular Music Pedagogies: A Practical Guide for Music Teachers (Routledge) as well as The Music Learning Profiles Project: Let's Take this Outside (Routledge). He has published over a dozen articles in peer-reviewed journals including: International Journal of Music Education; Journal of Music Teacher Education; International Journal of Community Music; Bulletin of the Council for Research in Music Education; Journal of Music, Technology and Education; Journal of Historical Research in Music Education; Update: Applications of Research to Music Education; Visions of Research in Music Education; IASPM Journal; Education 3-13; Music Educators Journal; and Action Critique and Theory in Music Education. He also has authored multiple chapters in Oxford and Routledge Research Handbooks.

Bryan has a Bachelor of Music degree from Pepperdine University, a Master's degree in Teaching from Chapman University, and a Doctor of Musical Arts degree from Boston University. His research interests include popular music education, music technology education, and community music research. And most importantly, Bryan is a father, a husband, and a dog owner.

NAfME ALL-NATIONAL HONOR MODERN BAND ASSISTANT CONDUCTOR

RAINA MURNAK
Assistant Conductor, Modern Band

Dr. Raina Murnak is an Assistant Professor and Director of Contemporary Voice & Performance Artistry at the University of Miami's Frost School of Music. She has served as the Artistic Director of the Bruce Hornsby Creative American Music Pop Ensembles, co-founder of the renowned Frost Method of Experiential Musicianship, the founder and director of Frost Summer Institute of Contemporary Songwriting and a co-creator of the widely successful MADE program at Frost where she has been innovating in higher education for the last 19 years.

She is a sought-after vocalist and performance coach with over 20 years of experience on stage, television, and in the studio. As a multi-talented performer, vocalist, songwriter, producer, performance coach, and choreographer, Murnak brings great depth and breadth to her work with individuals and groups on the stage. Her extensive training in both classical and popular voice has afforded her the rare ability to fluently perform and coach a vast array of styles and genres from opera to classical avant-garde to theater to rock. Her gift is her ability to unleash artists and help them create compelling, honest performances grounded in freedom and expression.

As a clinician and thought leader, Murnak speaks on Stage Presence, Popular Voice, Movement, and Positive Strength-Centered Pedagogies. Additionally, she teaches Peak Performance using Positive Psychology concepts for FrostOnline. Her book Positive Psychology for Music Professionals—Character Strengths (Routledge) is due out in 2023.

She holds a Bachelor of Music and Master's degree in Vocal Performance and Composition from the State University of New York at Stony Brook and a Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Music Theory and Composition and Vocal Pedagogy from the University of Miami. She also holds a certificate in Instructional Design from Oregon State.

Murnak is not only well-versed music, but also in dance and the visual arts. She remains active as a performer and most recently, had an off-Broadway performance of her musical Belva, co-written with actress Janine Turner. Besides her musical life, Raina is an avid photographer, painter, designer, and lover of the ocean. She is a born and raised New Yorker who now lives in Miami where the weather is one of her best friends.

NAfME ALL-NATIONAL HONOR GUITAR ENSEMBLE CONDUCTOR

CHUCK HULIHAN
Conductor, Guitar Ensemble

Chuck Hulihan has enjoyed a career as a guitarist, educator, conductor, narrator, arts administrator, and as a classical music radio host. Since 1999 he has directed the internationally recognized guitar program at Glendale Community College, where he conducts the Glendale Guitar Orchestra and leads Guitar Ensembles in concerts that feature world premieres by many of today's most prominent and prolific guitar composers.

Chuck is one of the most active and sought-after conductors for guitar ensembles in the United States, including recent performances with Florida, Virginia, New Mexico, and Nevada All-State Guitar Ensembles. His work is highlighted by collaborations with composers whom have written new works for guitar ensemble including Andrew York, Mark Houghton, Rex Willis, Jan Bartlema, Adrian Andrei, Frank Wallace, Vito Nicola Paradiso, Taiwo Adegoke, Francisco Munoz, and Aramis Silvereke.

Conducting highlights include three tours with the Arizona Guitar Orchestra, including Shingo Fujii's Concierto de Los Angeles with William Kanengiser, Andrew York's By Chants with the GRAMMY-award winning Los Angeles Guitar Quartet, and Brad Richter's Once We Moved Like the Wind with soloists Jose Luis Puerta and Jonathan Crissman.

In 2019, Chuck conducted an exclusive guitar ensemble performance at the Guitar Foundation of America's International Convention and Competitions of GRAMMY-award winning composer Carlos Rafael Rivera's score to the Netflix mini-series "Godless" in close collaboration with the composer.

He is the Education Director for the Guitar Foundation of America, where he also directs the Guitar Orchestras and Youth Guitar Summit at the yearly International Convention and Competitions. Currently, Chuck is Guitar Chair for the Arizona Music Educators Association where in 2022 they launched the All-Arizona Guitar Ensemble with a virtual project of music by Mark Houghton. He has served as Western Division Representative for the National Association for Music Education's Innovations Council and as a board member for the Grand Canyon Guitar Society.

In 2020 he served as conductor for the NAfME All-National Honor Guitar Ensemble in virtual format, and is excited to be in front of this ensemble in-person again for 2022.

NAfME ALL-NATIONAL HONOR MIXED CHOIR CONDUCTOR

FRANCES FONZA
Conductor, Mixed Choir

Frances Fonza is the Visiting Director of Choral Activities at the University of Central Arkansas where she teaches undergraduate and graduate conducting, choral literature, and conducts the Concert Choir and Chamber Singers. Fonza earned a bachelor's degree in music education at the University of Missouri-Columbia, a master's degree in music education, and a doctorate in music education/choral conducting at Florida State University.

Most recently Dr. Fonza served on the faculty at Stephen F. Austin State University and Tarleton State University, both in Texas and was the Director of Worship and Arts at Mt. Ennon Baptist Church in Maryland. Dr. Fonza taught choral music at the middle school and high school levels in Kentucky and was the choir director and a sight singing teacher at the Duke Ellington School of the Arts in Washington, DC. Additionally, Dr. Fonza served as Assistant Professor of Music Education and Director of Choral Activities at Wittenberg University in Ohio. Choirs under her direction have participated in state, regional, and national music festivals.

Fonza is an active singer, clinician, and adjudicator. A frequent guest conductor, she has conducted all state, honor, public school, and church choirs. Her research interests are community partnerships, healthy singing in Gospel music, and tone building strategies used in the choral classroom. She holds professional memberships in the National Association for Music Education and the American Choral Directors Association.

NAfME ALL-NATIONAL HONOR MIXED CHOIR ACCOMPANIST

LISA POWELL
Accompanist, Mixed Choir

Ms. Powell received her B.A. in Music Education from Calvin College in Grand Rapids, Michigan, and then spent a decade directing Junior and Senior High bands in Michigan and Ohio. Since moving to Jackson, Tennessee in 2005, Lisa has served as the Staff Accompanist for Bethel University's Music Department, as well as the Musical Director for Bethel's Renaissance Theater Program from 2011 to 2019. She did collaborative piano work for the Music Department at the University of Tennessee in Martin in 2018 and 2019 as well. Lisa has served as an All-Northwest Choir Accompanist in Tennessee, each year since 2008 and has also been a Tennessee Music Education Association All-State Choir accompanist in 2011, 2018, 2019, 2022, and will be again in 2023.

Currently, Ms. Powell is the Director of Music and Student Ministries at Grace United Methodist Church in Jackson, Tennessee, where she has served since 2010. She also continues her investment in the Children's Ministry at Northside Church, also in Jackson, where she began serving in 2006. She has been the Band Director and History Teacher at Sacred Heart of Jesus High School in Jackson since 2019. In March of 2021, Lisa was the accompanist for the National Association for Music Education Virtual All-National Mixed Choir under the direction of Frances Fonza Smith and is thrilled to be able to work with her in person again.

Lisa resides in Jackson, Tennessee and is proud of her three kids Julia (25), Jesse (20), and Joanna (17).

NAfME ALL-NATIONAL HONOR JAZZ ENSEMBLE CONDUCTOR

TODD STOLL
Conductor, Jazz Ensemble

In over three decades as a music educator, Todd Stoll has taught young musicians at every level, from elementary school through college. His impact on public music education can be seen in his legacy at central Ohio's Westerville City Schools where he served for 18 years as music teacher and for 10 years as music curriculum coordinator. He has also served as Ohio's president of the International Association of Jazz Educators and the inaugural Chair of Jazz Events for the Ohio Music Education Association. His curriculum work has been implemented at public schools across Ohio and beyond, bringing jazz education to students who otherwise might not have received it.

An experienced performer, Duke Ellington expert, and jazz advocate, Mr. Stoll founded the Columbus Jazz Youth Orchestra (CJYO) in 1991 to give young people the chance to cultivate a love of jazz through performance. He served as the director until 2011. Under his direction, the CJYO released six CDs, participated in the prestigious Essentially Ellington competition at Jazz at Lincoln Center, and toured Europe and South America. His students have achieved successes that have taken them to The Juilliard School, Carnegie Hall, and The New York Philharmonic.

In 2011, Mr. Stoll became the Vice President of Education at Jazz at Lincoln Center (JALC) in New York City, which continues to afford him the opportunity to bring jazz education programs to thousands of people of all ages and socioeconomic levels. Since he joined the organization, JALC has produced more than 10,000 education events in the US and around the world. The innovative Essentially Ellington high school jazz band program has expanded during his tenure, providing nearly 200,000 free scores to 4,000 high schools in all 50 states and 46 countries, reaching more than 500,000 students.

Mr. Stoll holds a Master of Music degree from the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music and a Bachelor of Music degree from Miami University. He currently serves on the boards of the Jazz Education Network where he is President; the New York City chapter of Most Valuable Kids; and the National Association for Music Education Policy Roundtable.

NAfME ALL-NATIONAL HONOR JAZZ ENSEMBLE GUEST SOLOIST

HELEN SUNG.
Guest Soloist, Jazz Ensemble

Helen Sung is an acclaimed pianist and composer. Born and raised in Houston, Texas, she studied classical piano and violin and attended Houston's renowned High School for the Performing & Visual Arts (HSPVA). Continuing her classical piano studies at the University of Texas at Austin, a chance meeting with jazz music caused an eventual course change: she went on to graduate from the Thelonious Monk Institute of Jazz Performance (at the New England Conservatory) and win the Kennedy Center's Mary Lou Williams Jazz Piano Competition.

Now based in New York City, Helen has worked with such luminaries as the late Clark Terry, Wayne Shorter, Ron Carter, Wynton Marsalis (who named her as one of his "Who's Got Next: Jazz Musicians to Watch"), MacArthur Fellows Regina Carter and Cecile McLorin Salvant, and Terri Lyne Carrington's Grammy-winning "Mosaic Project." Helen and her band have performed at major festivals/venues including Newport, Monterey, SFJAZZ, Disney Hall, and Carnegie Hall. Internationally, her "NuGenerations" Project toured southern Africa as a U.S. State Department Jazz Ambassador, and recent engagements include debuts at the London Jazz Festival, Jazz at Lincoln Center Shanghai, Blue Note Beijing, and the Sydney International Women's Jazz Festival. In addition, she currently performs with fine ensembles including the Mingus Big Band and McLorin Salvant's Ogresse.

Helen followed her jazz chart-topping Concord Jazz release Anthem For A New Day with Sung With Words, a collaborative project with the celebrated American poet Dana Gioia, supported by a Chamber Music America/Doris Duke Foundation New Jazz Works grant. In 2020 she was awarded an NYC Women's Fund grant for Quartet²: a project combining her jazz quartet with a string quartet. Helen has also completed composition commissions for the West Chester University Poetry Conference, North Coast Brewing Company, JazzReach, and a composer residency at Flushing Town Hall.

Inspired by her experience at the Monk Institute, she stays involved in music education through residencies and workshops, and also produced a Jazz Week program benefiting underserved youth in Camden, New Jersey. In 2017, the University of Texas College of Fine Arts awarded her its most prestigious honor—the E. William Doty Distinguished Alumna Award, and HSPVA inducted her into its Jazz Hall of Fame. She has served on the jazz faculties at the Berklee College of Music, the Juilliard School, and Columbia University, where she also was the inaugural jazz artist-in-residence at Columbia's prestigious Zuckerman Institute in 2019. Helen was named a Steinway Artist in 2020.

NAfME ALL-NATIONAL HONOR SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA CONDUCTOR

NOBUYOSHI YASUDA
Conductor, Symphony Orchestra

Nobuyoshi Yasuda is Director of Orchestra and Professor of Violin at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, and was appointed as Music Director of the Chippewa Valley Symphony in 1993. He guest conducted orchestras such as the Muncie Symphony Orchestra, the Fort Wayne Philharmonic, La Crosse Symphony and the St. Paul Chamber Orchestra. Mr. Yasuda made his international conducting debut in Germany with Das Philharmonie Orchester des NDR-Hannover in May 2003. And in March 2004, he made his Japanese debut with the Osaka Philharmonic.

He has served as Acting Assistant Conductor for the Minnesota Orchestra and was Associate Conductor of the Grand Teton Music Festival. His performance of Milhaud's Création du monde at the festival was broadcast on National Public Radio, Performance Today in July 2001.

His expertise and joyful approach to music that allows him to work successfully with the musicians of the Chippewa Valley Symphony, and Grand Teton Music Festival Orchestra has allowed him to reach out to aspiring young musicians as well. He leads master classes and guest conducts at middle and high school orchestras and bands, as well as serves as a speaker at inspirational "career days" for young adults throughout the upper Midwest.

His reputation as an inspiring teacher and a conductor has led him to be invited as a conductor of the Wisconsin High School State Honors Orchestra, the Illinois All-State High School Orchestra, the Alaska All-State High School Orchestra, the North Dakota All-State High School Orchestra.

A native of Takarazuka, Japan, Nobuyoshi Yasuda's musical studies began on the violin at the age of three. He holds a Bachelor of Music degree from Soai University in Japan and a Master of Music degree from Indiana University, Bloomington.

NAfME ALL-NATIONAL HONOR CONCERT BAND CONDUCTOR

RODNEY DORSEY
Conductor, Concert Band

Rodney Dorsey is professor of music and chair of the Band Department at the Indiana University Jacobs School of Music; a position he has held since the fall of 2018. Dorsey is the conductor of the internationally recognized Indiana Wind Ensemble and guides all aspects of the graduate wind conducting program. Past positions have included Director of Bands at the University of Oregon, Associate Director of Bands at the University of Michigan, Associate Professor of Music at DePaul University, and Director of Athletic Bands at Northwestern University's Bienen School of Music. Dorsey also taught public school for eight years in Florida and Georgia.

Ensembles under Dorsey's direction have performed at state and national events including the College Band Directors National Conference North/Northwest Regional Conference and the Music for All National Festival. He is an active guest conductor having led intercollegiate, all-state, and regional honors bands around the country. International engagements include Hungary, Canada, and Bulgaria.

An active advocate for the composition of new wind repertoire, Dorsey has been involved in a number of commissioning projects that include the following composers; Andrea Reinkemeyer, Steven Mackey, D. J. Sparr, Anthony Barfield, Stacy Garrop, Andrew Rindfleisch, and John Mackey.

Dorsey has also presented clinic sessions at national and state conferences that include; the College Band Directors National Association, National Association for Music Education, College Music Society, and the Midwest Clinic. He has also presented at numerous state music conferences around the country.

Dorsey holds a number of professional memberships that include the College Band Directors National Association, National Association for Music Education, Indiana Bandmasters Association, Kappa Kappa Psi, Tau Beta Sigma (honorary), Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, and Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Incorporated.

His commitment to the music community has been demonstrated by his participation on boards of directors for the Midwest Clinic and Music for All. He is also an elected member of the prestigious American Bandmasters Association. His lifelong commitment to teaching saw him recognized as a Yamaha Master Educator.

A native of Gainesville, Florida, Rodney Dorsey is a graduate of Florida State University and Northwestern University in Evanston. He studied conducting with Dr. James Croft, John Paynter, and Mallory Thompson, and clarinet with Fred Ormand and Frank Kowalsky.

WHY NOT BOTH?

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA
SCHOOL OF MUSIC

THE DECISION TO MAJOR IN MUSIC DOESN'T MEAN OTHER ACADEMIC INTERESTS HAVE TO TAKE SECOND CHAIR.

The University of Florida School of Music offers a curriculum designed for students who desire a Bachelor of Music degree, but would like to pursue other areas of study as well.

POPULAR OPTIONS INCLUDE:

- Music and Master of Science in Management or Entrepreneurship
- Music with Pre-Health Professions
- Dual degree in music and other undergraduate area of study

Music Education

at Westminster Choir College of Rider University

GROW AS A MUSIC EDUCATOR

Westminster's music education programs have a reputation for excellence in the field and a long track record for successful job placement. Our programs aim to develop teachers who are reflective, who acknowledge the connections music has to the child's world and who seek to promote an understanding of those connections in a social context.
