the immediate Past President or, in the absence of the immediated past president, to any other past president. 2) All complaints of misconduct will be kept confidential except to the necessary to conduct a through investigation. 3)A material violation of the code of conduct is one that results in harmto NAFME or its affiliates.

4) Direct or indirect retaliation of any kind by NAFME or its officers, director, employees, members, or agent against any individual who makes, initiates or is involved in making of a complaint is strictly prohibited. This shall be strictly enforced by the board. Complaints made with knowledge that they are false are strictly prohibited. This prohibition on making of knowingly false complaints shall be strictly enforced by the board. 5) Upon reeceipt and preliminary review of each complaint, the president may conclude, in the President's sole discretion, that the complaint: (A) contains factually unreliable or insufficient information, or (B) is patently frivolous or trivial. In such changes, The President may determine that the complaint does not constitute a potentially actionable compliant that would justify bringing it before the committee for determination of whether there has been a material violation of the code of conduct. If so, such complaint shall be dismissed without prejudice by the President, who shall provide written notice to the person who submitted the complaint of its disposition.All such preliminary dispositions of complaints by the President shall be immeiately reported in writing to all members of the committee. 6)Notice of investigation: If a complaint is deemed by the President on a preliminary basis to be a potentially actionable complaint, the President shall provide a written notice to the director whose conduct has been called into question, advising the director that an investigation is being initiated. The President shall also provide written notice to the person who submitted the complaint that the complaint is being reviewed by the committee.

7)Review of complaint: For each complaint that the President believes is potentially actionable, the President shall authorize an investigation into its specific facts or circumstances to whatever extent is necessary in order to clarify, expand or corroborate the information provided in the complaint and in order to assist the committee in determining whether charges should be brought against the director. The committee may be assisted by NAFME staff, legal counsel and outside experts, as needed, so long as all persons involved in the investigation agree to maintain the complete confidentiality of the investigation. The committee or its agents may contact the person who submitted the complaint, the director who is the subject of the charge, or any other persons who may have knowledge of the facts and circumstances surrounding the complaint. 8) The committee determination: The committee shall either dismiss the complaint with prejudice or prepare written charges against the director. Written charges shall explain the alleged conduct and explain why the conduct constitutes grounds for disciplinary. The committee shall also produce a written report with the results of its investigation. The person who made the complaint shall be notified of the committee's determination but shall not be provided with a copy of any written charges of the report. The director in question shall be notified of the committee's determination. Copies of written charges and the committee's report shall be provided to the President, the committee members, the director against whom the charges were filed. 9) Hearing: If the committee recommends charges be brought, it shall hold a hearing, in person, by telephone or video conference. The President shall present the committee's report with the assistance of NAFME's legal counsel. The charged director may present a defense and may be represented by legal counsel, at his or her own expense. The President shall determine the rules of evidence that shall apply to the hearing and may limit the presentation of oral or written testimony by witnesses. The charged director may waive the right to a hearing in which case the committee may deliberate based on its report. 10) Determination of violation: Upon completion of its investigation and the hearing, the committee shall determine by majority vote, upon a preponderance of the evidence, whether or not there has been a violation of the code of conduct and whether the board impose sanctions. If the committee find there has been a violation, the committee shall recommend an appropriate sanction. The committee's written recommendation shall be presented to the board. 11) Imposition of sanctions: The board shall determine, by majority vote, the appropriate sanction to be impose on any director found to have violated the NAFME code of conduct. Sanctions may include a written reprimand, censure, suspension from board membership for a period of time, or permanent expulsion from the board. 12) Resignation: If a board member who is the subject of a complaint voluntarily resigns in writing his or her position on the board during the pendency of a complaint, the complaint shall be dismissed without prejudice and without any further action by the committee or the board. In the event of a resignation, the person who made the complaint shall be notified in writing of the fact and date of the resignation and that the board has dismissed the complaint without prejudice.

Part II Declaration and Signature Authorization of Officer or Person Subject to Tax

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that ☒ I am an officer of the above entity or ☐ I am a person subject to tax with respect to (name of entity) _____, (EIN) _____ and that I have examined a copy of the 2023 electronic return and accompanying schedules and statements, and, to the best of my knowledge and belief, they are true, correct, and complete. I further declare that the amount in Part I above is the amount shown on the copy of the electronic return. I consent to allow my intermediate service provider, transmitter, or electronic return originator (ERO) to send the return to the IRS and to receive from the IRS (a) an acknowledgement of receipt or reason for rejection of the transmission, (b) the reason for any delay in processing the return or refund, and (c) the date of any refund. If applicable, I authorize the U.S. Treasury and its designated Financial Agent to initiate an electronic funds withdrawal (direct debit) entry to the financial institution account indicated in the tax preparation software for payment of the federal taxes owed on this return, and the financial institution to debit the entry to this account. To revoke a payment, I must contact the U.S. Treasury Financial Agent at 1-888-353-4537 no later than 2 business days prior to the payment (settlement) date. I also authorize the financial institutions involved in the processing of the electronic payment of taxes to receive confidential information necessary to answer inquiries and resolve issues related to the payment. I have selected a personal identification number (PIN) as my signature for the electronic return and, if applicable, the consent to electronic funds withdrawal.
