Support music education in your community and nation

National Association for Music Education

Ways to Support Your School's Music Program

Discover five simple, practical ways to advocate for music education and help your school's program thrive. Parents and community members play an important role in strengthening music in our schools!

bit.ly/SupportMusicEd

Grassroots Action Center

Take action! Stand up for your school's music program by joining conversations about state and federal education policy. Contact your members of Congress and make your voice heard to highlight the importance of music education for all.

bit.ly/NAfMEGrassrootsAction

Federal Funding Resources

Explore effective ways to use federal funding streams (Titles I, II, and IV-A) to expand access and enhance support for music education in your school or district.

bit.ly/HowToSupportArtsEd

Support music education in your community and nation

National Association for Music Education

Ways to Support Your School's Music Program

Discover five simple, practical ways to advocate for music education and help your school's program thrive. Parents and community members play an important role in strengthening music in our schools!

bit.ly/SupportMusicEd

Grassroots Action Center

Take action! Stand up for your school's music program by joining conversations about state and federal education policy. Contact your members of Congress and make your voice heard to highlight the importance of music education for all.

bit.ly/NAfMEGrassrootsAction

Federal Funding Resources

Explore effective ways to use federal funding streams (Titles I, II, and IV-A) to expand access and enhance support for music education in your school or district.

bit.ly/HowToSupportArtsEd